

VIOLIN LESSONS

Violin lessons are now offered with violin instructor, Hannah Stanford. Hannah is a graduate of Anderson University, where she received a B.A. in Music Business in May 2016. At AU, she played in the Chamber orchestra, and prior to that played in a variety of ensembles. She has performance experience in wide range of styles including classical, folk, and contemporary music. Hannah is passionate about sharing the gift of music and helping others to experience its wonderful benefits in their own lives. She has been teaching private violin for over a year and has seen her students take remarkable strides in skill and musicality. She enjoys choosing fitting repertoire for her students to play, including selections from Essential Elements, Suzuki Method repertoire, and more. In lessons, students will receive instruction in violin technique and work with and excellent repertoire. Students will also have performance opportunities.

- Total session cost: $280 at $28/half hour private lesson. Installment payment options available.
- Students are responsible for purchasing or renting violin and necessary materials. Many violin shops have "rent to own" offers. Renting is often recommended if a student requires a smaller violin, which can be determined and fitted at a shop.
